

Above, a study for “Poached Salmon.”

Below, detail from the final painting. The original painting has been donated to the 2006 Highland Games, along with three prints. The original and prints will go at auction, with a major portion of the proceeds providing funds for the Texas Children’s Hospital.

Four studies of various favorite places in Scotland. Upper left, near Broom Hall in the 1850's. Upper right, leaping salmon on the Crathie Beat, just below the Brig O' Dee. The bottom two studies are views of the Firth of Forth, looking from Elgin House Hotel.

RIVER DEE - APRIL 4, 2006 / GAVIN (DITH BROWN) TROUT SPEY
CASTING
MAJOR DAVE WHITE, ROYAL GORDON HIGHLANDERS (RET.)

Gunn Caldwell

Two studies from the River Dee. A young Irish gentleman forenamed Gavin took a beautiful brown trout on a sunny, snowdappled day on the Crathie Beat. Major Dave White, Royal Gordon Highlanders (Ret.) provided expert spey rod lessons. An osprey might occasionally take a Dee salmon.
